Description

Test Preparation Resources provides general information about the CUNY Assessment Tests (CAT) including a set of resources to prepare to take them. Students can meet CUNY's admissions requirements based on New York Regents test scores, the SAT or the ACT tests. The CAT offers you an alternative route for admission to four-year colleges. Testing Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) are provided here www.cuny.edu/academics/testing/testing-faqs/#FAQ-9.

ABOUT CUNY: The City University of New York (CUNY) has 24 modern campuses spanning the five boroughs of New York, including; Senior Colleges, Community Colleges, and Graduate Schools.Â

Providing a quality, accessible education, regardless of background or means, has been CUNY's mission since 1847. Every year, hundreds of thousands of students "including a record 274,000 degree-credit students" choose The City University of New York for a multitude of reasons that can be summed up as one: opportunity.

The University's seven community colleges provide a high-quality education through associate degree programs that prepare students for transfer to senior colleges or entry into professional careers. The CUNY Graduate Center offers more than 30 doctoral programs. CUNY School of Public Health and Health Policy, a collaboration of four CUNY institutions, offers master's and doctoral degrees. The CUNY School of Law is recognized as the nation's premier public-interest law school.
